

HELLO! WELCOME TO ANGLICAN CHURCH

We are the Owen Sound Anglicans. And now we must consider the naming of our Anglican Parish.

This is not an easy thing. There is a permanence that comes with a name.

We need to be thoughtful – what is important to us as a community? What name will allow us to honour our origins and carry us forward into the future? What name will identify us to ourselves and to the community beyond our doors? We need to be patient with the process. We need to be open to any and all names suggested, and yes, that includes our current names. And through it all, we need to be prayerful.

This is our summer assignment: what name best suits our Anglican Parish of Own Sound? And why?

In the Fall, each member of vestry will have the opportunity to suggest a name along with a sentence or two explaining why this could be our name. The mechanics of the process will include both paper and electronic means so everyone will be able to participate. We will have time to discuss our choices. Eventually, we will be voting to select the name under which we will flourish.

Let's bring our best selves to this most important task.
